

Welcome to a Swedish December Tradition

- Lucia Celebration and Yule Bazaar -

The Yule Bazaar and the Lucia Celebration represents one of the foremost cultural tradition in Sweden.

There are many legends about Lucia, but in each one she is the symbol of light and hope. She comes on the darkest day of the year to herald in a joyous season with singing, feasting and with the spirit of friendship and with good will towards all.

The bazaar will open at 10 am where you can find Swedish crafts, gift items, baked goods and sweets. At 11 am a candlelit Lucia procession with Swedish choir music and soloists highlight this event.

After the performance enjoy a Swedish "fika", choose from a selection of Swedish Glögg, coffee, sandwiches, and home baked cinnamon rolls and saffron buns.
